Sponsors: Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House.

Referred to:

1 A HOUSE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PRELIMINARY 2 EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION.

3 Whereas, on September 22, 1862, following the Union victory at Antietam (Battle
4 of Sharpsburg), President Abraham Lincoln signed the Preliminary Emancipation 5 Proclamation; and

6 Whereas, this document stated in part that "all persons held as slaves within any 7 State, or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the 8 United States shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free"; and

9 Whereas, by issuing the Preliminary Emancipation Proclamation, President Lincoln 10 formally alerted the Confederacy of his intention to free all persons held as slaves within those 11 states if they did not rejoin the Union within 100 days; and

12 Whereas, on January 1, 1863, in the midst of the American Civil War, President 13 Abraham Lincoln issued the final Emancipation Proclamation, which paved the way for the 14 adoption of the 13th Amendment, abolishing slavery in the United States; and 15 Whereas, the Preliminary Emancipation Proclamation is considered one of the most 16 significant documents in the history of the United States; and

17 Whereas, this historical seven-page document, on loan from the National Archives, 18 will be on display at the North Carolina Museum of History from May 15, 2013, through June 19 16, 2013, giving the people of this State the opportunity to view a document that is rarely on 20 display; and

21 Whereas, the Preliminary Emancipation Proclamation is part of the exhibit
22 "Freedom Coming, Freedom for All," which follows a time line of events focusing on the status 23 of North Carolina before the Civil War, events leading up to Lincoln's issuance of the 24 Preliminary Emancipation Proclamation, and outcomes and results of the document in the State 25 and nation, as well as the differences between the Preliminary Emancipation Proclamation, the 26 final Emancipation Proclamation, and the 13th Amendment; and

27 Whereas, the content and historical significance of the Preliminary Emancipation 28 Proclamation should be embraced by all North Carolinians; Now, therefore, 29 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

30 SECTION 1. The House of Representatives encourages the people of this State to 3 SECTION 3. This resolution is effective upon adoption.
